

KING AIR B200

ZS-JSC

Introduced in 1973 the King Air B200 is still in production and has become one of the most popular turbo-prop aircraft of all time. The latest variants feature full digital instrumentation and avionics and superb cabin comfort. The reliability and safety shown by this aircraft has made it a winner in the leisure and business travel markets throughout Africa, particularly to the smaller, unlicensed airfields.

Charter
Aircraft Sales
SimplyFly
Aircraft Management
Maintenance
FBO
Completions Consulting

Now you're flying.

AFRICA

ASIA

AUSTRALASIA

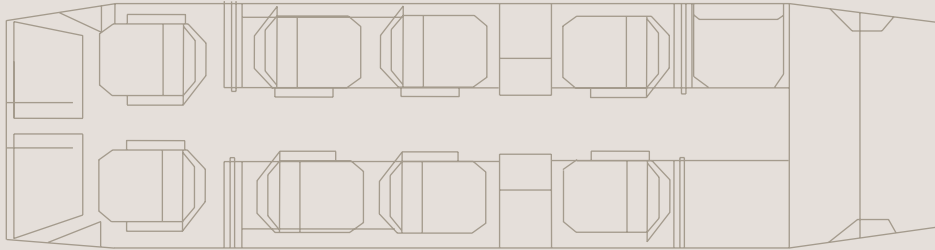

EUROPE

LATIN AMERICA

MIDDLE EAST

KING AIR B200

ZS-JSC

KINGAIR B200
CABIN CONFIGURATION

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS:

Registration	ZS-JSC
Base	Lanseria, South Africa
Year of Manufacture	2007
Number of Passengers	7
Crew	2 Pilots
Cruise Altitude	35,000 ft / 11,290 m
Cruising Speed	270 kts / 500 km/hr
Non-stop Range	1,000 nm / 1,850 km
Galley	No
Lavatory	No

TRAVEL TIMES *

JOURNEY	NM	KM	FLIGHT TIME
Lanseria - Windhoek	621	1,150	02 h 25 mins
Lanseria - Maun	439	812	01 h 45 mins
Lanseria - Bulawayo	360	666	01 h 30 mins

*based on average winds from doors shut to doors open

KINGAIR B200
RANGE OUT OF LANSERIA

